What: United Way of Anchorage's 6th annual DAY OF ACTION

United Way's DAY of ACTION is part of a global effort to encourage and support Volunteer efforts throughout all communities. United Way volunteers will be working rain or shine at the AK Child and Family campus to enhance the grounds and expand the garden.

When: Saturday, June 14, 2014
9 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Where: AK Child & Family Campus
4600 Abbott Road, Anchorage

Why: Saturday's event marks United Way of Anchorage's 6th annual Day of Action and is part of United Way's year round commitment to harness the power of volunteers to positively change the community.

"Bringing together volunteers of all ages from all over Anchorage to work side by side to turn a piece of land into something beautiful and productive shows how great things can happen when we all work together," said Sue Brogan, Vice President, Income/Health Impact, United Way of Anchorage. "The flower and vegetable gardens that we are creating will be there for everyone to enjoy for years to come."
