To the folks who are waiting for the last minute – it's almost here!

Open enrollment ends December 15

Anchorage AK – Time is running out for those who still need health coverage for 2018. The last day to enroll for Affordable Care Act Health Insurance in the Marketplace at HealthCare.gov is Friday, December 15, 2017.

“For those who have questions or need help with enrollment, now is the time to take action. Our Healthcare Navigators are here to help and coverage might be more affordable than you think,” said Jane Straight, Healthcare Navigator and Director of Health Impact, United Way of Anchorage.

United Way Healthcare Navigators are available to provide free and confidential assistance with:

- Finding the right Marketplace healthcare plan for you and your family
- Applying for coverage at HealthCare.gov, including applying for financial assistance (premium tax credits)
- Renewing or updating your current plan
- Medicaid and Denali KidCare enrollment

To connect with a HealthCare Navigator:

- Call 2-1-1 to speak with a navigator and/or schedule an in-person appointment.
- WALK-IN help is also available:
 - ▶ Saturday, DEC 2 at Mountain View Library from 10am – 4pm
 - ▶ Saturday, DEC 9 at Loussac Library from 10am – 4pm
 - ▶ Thursday, DEC 14 at Loussac Library from 2pm – 9pm

Don't wait for the last minute rush and miss out. Get answers. Get covered.
