Stable housing is the foundation for health, well-being and a productive life.

Housing those experiencing homelessness today, and in the future, will take the commitment and engagement of the entire community, but it IS possible.

Shelly Wozniak of Alaska Public Media helms a discussion on the progress being made, the lives that have been transformed, the plan for Anchorage and how you can play a part. Panel includes:

- Lisa Caldeira, Program Director, Brother Francis Shelter, Catholic Social Services
- Larissa Tapia, Administrator, Medical Services Division, Southcentral Foundation
- Brian Schaffer, Transition Coordinator, Anchorage Coalition to End Homelessness
- Dash Togi, a young woman sharing her inspiring story
