What: United Way Day of Caring Food Drive

When: September 16, 2016
10 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Where: Food Bank of Alaska
2121 Spar Avenue

Why: No one should have to go hungry. Not today.
Not in our community.

Weeks of food drive activities within the business community, schools and by Anchorage residents at their churches, in their neighborhoods and with their civic organizations, culminates today when the donations will be dropped off at the Food Bank of Alaska.

The Day of Caring Food Drive is often the largest single day food drive in Anchorage. The many thousands of nutritious meals that will result from the food drive will go a long way to helping kids do better in school and keep struggling families on the pathway to financial stability.

Participating businesses and community members who can't make it today can drop off their Day of Caring Food Drive donations at the Food Bank of Alaska all month long. Cash donations are also welcome. Make checks payable to Food Bank of Alaska.

About United Way of Anchorage

United Way of Anchorage mobilizes people and resources to make lasting, measurable changes in our community to improve lives. Our priorities are successful, prepared kids; strong, financially stable families; access to medical care for all; and a community making healthy lifestyle choices. United Way invites you to join the movement. www.liveunitedanc.org
