What: United Way Day of Caring Food Drive

When: Friday, September 15, 2017
10 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Where: Food Bank of Alaska, 2121 Spar Avenue

Why: No one should have to go hungry. Not today. Not in our community.

Weeks of food drive activities within the business community, schools and by Anchorage residents at their in their neighborhoods, churches, and with their civic organizations, culminates with the donations being dropped off at the Food Bank of Alaska.

United Way's Day of Caring Food Drive is often the largest single day food drive in Anchorage. The many thousands of nutritious meals that will result from the food drive go a long way in the fight to help kids do better in school and struggling families stay housed and on the pathway to financial stability.

Participating businesses and community members who can't make it today can drop off their Day of Caring Food Drive donations at the Food Bank of Alaska all month long. Cash donations are also welcome (checks should be made payable Food Bank of Alaska).

About United Way of Anchorage

United Way of Anchorage mobilizes people and resources to make lasting, measurable changes in our community to improve lives. Our priorities are successful, prepared kids; strong, financially stable families; access to medical care for all; and a community making healthy lifestyle choices. United Way invites you to join the movement. www.liveunitedanc.org
